Dear Stanley,

If these names are from "Virginia Revolutionary Soldiers," a publication of the Virginia State Library. V. R. means V. Regt. of the Continental line. (There were fifteen of these, besides two State Regiments. V. S. R.) W. D. refers to manuscripts in the War Department, of which there are several hundred, and the second figure 5 on page three. The Virginia Library has photostats of these lists, and if you wish to follow this up, you could write to either place. If to the War Department, address the Adjutant General. With best wishes.

sincerely, C. S. Melbourne

Pulliam, James (14 V. R.) W. D. 202, 1
W. D. 268, 10

Pulliam, John (14 V. R.) W. D. 207, 1

Shugars, William 3 V. R. W. D. 393, 1.