This certifies that in the "REPORT FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR...IN RELATION TO THE PENSION ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNITED STATES (Washington, 1835), Vol. 2, page 128 of the part of the volume which contains the Virginia Pension Roll, appears an entry which shows that Thomas Pulliam was a private in the Virginia militia in the Revolutionary War. His name appears in a list of pensioners of the United States living at the time that the report was made in Culpeper County, Virginia. His name was placed on the pension roll April 8, 1833, and his pension, $20 a year, commenced March 4, 1831. His age is given as 72 years.
