My dear Mr. Shugert,

I have found it, and we can kindly ask for better auth-

The page 216, Vol. 31, Va. Historical Magazine. There is a "Rent-Roll of the lands of her Majesty in the Parish of St. Peter's and St. Paul's, Anno 1704," which is the suit Rent-Roll of Kent Co., Va., and on page
225. The name of "William Pullam" appears for 5.75 acres, but is possibly as 9 acres. And here no doubt that William Pullam of New Kent Co. and William Pullam were the same person. As I wrote you there were several grants to Wm. Pullam. So Pullam must have been the original spelling. The thing to do

Now I find out how we are related to this William Pullam. His children are recorded in the Parish Register of Nerd Tint up to 1780. I think that the Pullams and Pullerons Pullum were from both and only have been his children. I am glad to see official
I send you this change in the spelling of the word. We know now it is out.

Pillywin. Next time I have a chance in the library I shall try to see that book in King and Queen Co.

Bayz.

Will best wishes for Easter, Sun.

Endear yourself.
