The rootsweb.com is great and the right price. The place there that I have found the most useful is worldconnect. I sent an e-mail to Nancy Moore telling her I had married a descendant of Silas Pulliam. Told her about his children and Nellie , but she misunderstood my e-mail and listed you, Pres, Billy and Laura as brothers and sisters of nellie (children of your sister) . I sent her a more clear correction. I also gave her your e-mail address telling her that you were also very interested in the lineage of the family and that you could add more detailed info on all the children and their families than I could. I hope you do not mind . Maybe I could get to Culpeper soon and we could try to gather some dates and get them added to the tree that N.Moore has. Last night I found a place with 1749 postings about the Pulliams. Jack Avis told me he has sent me the family sheets. I found the line of Avis back to London 1585 including Robert Avis(1659-1733) his 5 children, 4 Baltimore born but the 1st born in London.
