Dear Summerfield

I shall have to trouble you to jog Peter again, for the payment of the balance of his rent. He wrote me that he paid you ninety dollars & would pay the balance in a few days — you have very frequent communication with your Brother Milton, who could send him a letter at any time If I write to him from here he might not get my letter in a month — which frequently happens — you will please drop him a line & inform him that if he does not pay the balance of his rent immediately I shall have him distrained — I want the money, & I am not willing to wait his slothful time — I hope it may suit your convenience to enclose me a check on the same bank when he gives you the money — Charge him accurately with the interest on both bonds —
My wife & Daughters join me in kind regards & good wishes —
Your friend & companion
