

Dear Sir

Since I last wrote to you I have seen Mr. Suckley to whom Mr. Smith assigned your note He is perfectly satisfied with the arrangement you proposed and was authorized me to carry it into effect - He has further instructed me to transmit the joint note of J. & W. S & yourself to Mr. Warner - which I shall forthwith do - and shall request him to use his exertions to make the money from Mr. Smith

I saw Mrs. Malden at Fairfax Court house - but as I had no distinct recollection of the difference between the two notes - I declined receiving any payment from her - I now annex a Statement - in your statement you have deducted 1. mo. 11 d interest instead of 11 d - if the note bears interest - from 11. Dec - & not 1. Nov. - or you suppose -

I have addressed you on the difference between the principal sum of the two notes as this is not covered by the joint note - the amount you can remit me by the first opportunity - and your note shall be returned to you - in the mean time it may be convenient as covering over the balance of the money due statement

I remain very respectfully

Note to Charles - myself - note at December 1921. A. L. P. payment and one at mid-July date now - off. Dut. on joint note of T.L.M. & J.A.W.S. - I think 200 may prove the amount due but - nevertheless subject to modification over & the month's time it will be understood that the amount and exact amount of fine interest amounts to return and may be calculated by me - I understand a sum of over $9. to 11th months date is 11. And if such date is still unexpired until no month has less than 30 days then add 1/30th of month less than 30 days to the amount of fine interest of 1/30th of month of month less than 30 days of month
