

The separate answer of Nancy Weedlove is a bill of complaint exhibited against herself and others by Robert Garret and Rhoda his wife in the Chancery Court for the Frederickshurg district.

This Respondent saving and reserving to herself now and at all times all manner of exception to the said Bill, for answer thereto or to so much thereof as she is advised it is material for her to answer, she answers and saith: That she admits she is interested in the last Will and Testament of Martin Barnes dec'd but the extent to which she is interested is unknown to her, ~~she~~ ~~for~~ she has never seen the Will or a copy of it, whatever her interest may be she hopes it will be protected by this honorable Court. Your Respondent is now far advanced in age and incapable of attending to her interests, she is unacquainted with the various circumstances alleged in the ^{bill} ~~Bill~~ and calls for strict proof as to all the charges and allegations therein affecting her rights. Your Respondent having thus answered the ~~Bill~~ ^{Bill} prays to be hence dismissed the Court with her costs

Rockingham County to wit.

This day the within named Henry Buddlow came before me a justice of the peace in and for the County of Rockingham aforessaid and made oath that the facts stated in the foregoing answer are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of May 1829.
