

Meranda City 10th 1822

Thomas L Moon Esquire

Sir

Mr Joseph Smith has this day settled with the Bank of Potomac his note, for the payment of which he gave the Union Bank an order on you, for his claims on Ash and John A W Smith, you will now be pleased to account with Mr Smith for said claims very respectfully,

I am Your Obedt Serv

James Heath Esq

President of the Bank of Potomac

Dear Sir

above is the order I obtained on the pay-of my debt due the Union Bank, which I have been urged to pay, as it has been so long delayed. I hope you may have made the money. I have waited with anxious solicitude to hear from you since I last saw you. If you have not collected the debt of Mr Smith, I wish you to send me in J. A. W. Smith's note, I please to say of the balance of Ashes debt is made, also Pollard Newbys as I really want the money badly to replace what I have had to pay Hallett with Mr R. J. Taylor —

Your old friend
Joseph Smith
